

These sessions contain dedicated lessons that are designed to teach students how laboratory experiments are conducted in the professional world.

The Virtual Labs lessons are fun and interactive, truly making each experiment an enjoyable experience, with the added benefit of introducing young minds to the wonderful world of science.